Little Artists for RoL Man

More to Know

RoL Man has a special look that is full of meaning. His headpiece is shaped like "Xiezhi", an old Chinese creature known for knowing what's right and wrong. The headpiece shows that RoL Man can tell truth from lies.

His body looks like a cool robot, which stands for the strong and unbreakable base of the rule of law. His top has a collar similar to the one judges and lawyers wear. He also carries a small hammer, like the gavel used by judges in court, to show how serious and important the law is.
